LADY ALLEN TO HOST IPP STUDENTS' SOCIAL AT KINGS HOUSE

International Proxy Parents' (IPP) Patron, Her Excellency, the Most Honourable Lady Allen will host this year's IPP Students' Social at Kings House on Friday April 4, 2014 from 2.00-4.00pm.

The event is held annually for bright yet needy high school students whom the organization sponsors every year. Guidance Counselors at the various schools select students who qualify for these awards and IPP's Education Committee keeps abreast of their performances via school reports.

Over the past twenty (20) years, many schools such as Holy Childhood, Kingston College, Merle Grove, St Hilda's, Knox College, Jamaica College, Calabar, Ardenne High, Donoon Park, St Andrew High, Wolmer's Girls, Alpha Academy, St George's College and Ruseas High have benefited from IPP's financial aid.

Mrs Peju Wilson, President of IPP says "We are pleased that we have been able to assist so many awardees, some of whom have gone on to distinguish themselves in Jamaica and the wider world"

The International Proxy Parents (IPP) is a non-profit organization, registered in Kingston more than 30 years ago. Its primary purpose is helping less privileged children in Jamaica. Membership is comprised of Jamaicans, expatriates and persons from diplomatic missions who volunteer their time and services.
